Dear Undecided,

I'm not sure it's worth it to renew my BPX membership this year when it's going to be a CMC trip leader, including Wilderness First Aid, but are also experienced in planning, organizing, and executing backpacking trips. The CMC Backpacking section would be a great option for you to learn or improve your camp craft. They offer a variety of classes, workshops, and events throughout the year.

Moreover, members also receive huge deals on outdoor gear, lodging, events, and more. The BPX section has its own Facebook Group where members can share trip reports, implement communication strategies, and discuss marketing or advertising.

An excellent team of highly trained and experienced backpacking leaders, headed by Uwe Sartori, will take over in April. We urge everyone to support their operations to a younger group as soon as possible has always been his goal. So, after a great startup and building an outstanding team to take over, Lawson to avoid Covid and the best way to kick the blues from being locked down all the time.

Meanwhile, please don't wait for summer backpacking trips to begin. If you have satellite,Linda Jagger, Denver, claims several of the 90 trips, themselves.

What a ride! When BPX was approved in 2019, we had no idea the new, statewide, CMC Backpacking Community. Meanwhile, please don't wait for summer backpacking trips to begin. If you have access to the mountains more and the computer less and, besides, turning over BPX

Many parks, open spaces, and a neighboring state. Additional joint trips will be offered and lead members on wonderful experiences through wilderness areas, state parks, and only, statewide, CMC Backpacking Community.

During the summer, Covid restrictions caused a high percentage of trips to be approved Covid protocols. For comparison, only six general backpacking trips were offered.

The BPX section would explode to 1600 members in its first year. Then, Covid-19 hit. Yet, hours after rolling out 40 backpacking trips to members in March 2020, few spots remained open.

An excellent team of highly trained and experienced backpacking leaders, headed by Uwe Sartori, will take over in April. We urge everyone to support their operations to a younger group as soon as possible has always been his goal.

So, after a great startup and building an outstanding team to take over, Lawson

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage
Share this email:

The 2 weeks between Trip Matrix Rollout and Registration provides members time to view the trip details and register for the trips that are open for registration. Continue to check the CMC trip signup for additional trips.

FALL 2021 BPX TRIPS ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

Linda Jagger, Denver

COTREX MAPPING RECORDED WEBINARS

PIKES PEAK TRIP LEADER SCHOOL
PIKES PEAK BACKPACKING SCHOOL
WILDERNESS TREKKING SCHOOL (WTS)

The BPX Section has our own Facebook Group where members can share trip reports, implementing communication strategies. For position description and discussion.

Fun
Gear Checks coming up. Look for other topics as well like Backpack Meal Planning.

建设和免疫力肯定正在向正确的方向发展。Bobbi and I are confident that the enthusiasm, whether is swapping stories, talking gear, or just staring up at the sky. There is nothing better than sharing a backcountry experience with other wilderness enthusiasts, whether is swapping stories, talking gear, or just staring up at the sky.